FEATURING THE ART OF

BILL ANTON

Anton focuses on mood and passion and marshalling the virtue of landscape, figure and equine painting into one paintable subject: the American Cowboy. His award winning work has been featured in Southwest Art, Architectural Digest and Art of the West.

Deep in the Wind Rivers

GEORGE CARLSON

Internationally acclaimed award winner, sculptor and painter, George Carlson has been profiled in numerous publications as well as the PBS series, Profiles in American Art. He has had sole exhibitions at the Smithsonian and the Denver Art Museum as well as other major art museums.

Mother Goose

TIM CHERRY

Cherry's work depicts wildlife, and he casts primarily in bronze. He has won many prestigious awards including the James Earl Fraser Sculpture Award at the National Cowboy and Western Heritage Museum in OKC. In addition, he has placed many monumental sculptures in the US and Canada.

LEN CHMIEL

With a lifetime of studying the tradition of art, his small "on the spot" paintings serve as a genesis to Chmiel's larger compositions. His art has been featured at museum exhibitions including the National Cowboy and Western Heritage Museum, Austry National Center, Phoenix Art Museum and the National Wildlife Art Museum.
